Vital links to regional history are located within many Jefferson County Open Space parks! The ruins of the Walker Castle atop Mount Falcon, the Summer White House cornerstone, Hiwan Homestead Museum, Baehrden in the Rockies, the mysterious place known as the Plantation, Paleontology sites reaching back 150 million years, a hallowed Native American meditation area – these are only a few of the amazing locations shown to you in this magical history tour of Open Space lands. The program will be presented on March 5, 2016 by John Steinle, History Education Supervisor for Jefferson County Open Space. It will be held at Hiwan Homestead Museum, 4208 S. Timbervale Dr., Evergreen CO from 1 to 2:30 P.M. This program is free and no pre-registration is required.

Hiwan Homestead Museum is a 25-room log mansion constructed in the Rustic style of architecture. It is located in Evergreen at 4208 S. Timbervale Drive. Hiwan Homestead Museum is a Jefferson County Parks facility operated in partnership with the Jefferson County Historical Society. The Museum was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1974. Learn how Jefferson County Parks is enriching life at jeffco.us/parks.
